Dear Citizens,
The Volunteer of the Year awards are such fun to give each year. The award winners are always surprised and very deserving of this honor.

This year's winners were no exception. We are so appreciative of all of our volunteers and thank you for your hard work in FabEules!

In addition, we also have our Police Department and Fire Department annual award winners listed in this issue. We can't thank our public safety team enough for the tough job they endure every day.

Summer camp registration, summer reading club kick off, Out of School Concert, Splash Pad Opening, and the Aquatic Park opening all signal that summer is knocking on the door.

And of course, please don't forget about our City Council election for two places on the second Saturday in May with early voting before. The times and schedules are listed here and early voting will take place in the Eules Library. Please exercise your right to vote!

Volunteers of the Year Named for 2014

Eules volunteers consistently give their time and energy to make our community FabEules. In turn, the City of Eules honors volunteers each year to celebrate the dedication and service of these outstanding people.

Volunteer of the Year - Bill Golden

Since 2008, Bill Golden has been a staple on the Historical Preservation Committee. He served as chair for four years. During his time as chair, he played a very important role and led the committee to expand in many areas, including planning, setting up, opening and operating the Eules Heritage Museum. Bill has worked many hours at Heritage Park as a docent to school children and visitors. Bill is also a trustee of the Calloway Cemetery Association which maintains and preserves Calloway Cemetery where many of the original settlers are buried. Members of the committee praised him as an effective leader and for his enthusiasm, good humor and expertise that have been invaluable to the historical museum and the committee.

The museum opened in 2012 and features priceless artifacts from as far back as the 1880s. The preservation of our local history is so important and will make a difference in our lives for years to come.

Volunteer Business of the Year - Verna's

The Volunteer Business of the Year was presented to Verna Knight who owned Verna's Café for many years in Eules. Verna owned and operated restaurants in Eules for over 40 years. She served hot meals and made great memories the entire time. Verna is a community treasure and the way she greeted her customers/friends would always remind you of going home for a little home cooking! Verna was always quick with a smile and a hug. She's never met a decent person she didn't like. Verna's was a gathering place in this community where friends came to share a meal, discuss business and catch up on what was going on in Eules. She decided to hang up her spatula this year, but she finds time in her retirement to bake pies for the City Council meetings and is always ready to serve up a hot meal or a warm hug.

Volunteer Youth of the Year - Emily Hudgens

Emily has volunteered at the Library every summer since 2012. She is a pleasant and mature young woman who is eager to help with any task given to her. Last summer, she worked the most volunteer hours of all teens and assisted with a variety of Summer Reading Club tasks from helping with programs to assisting patrons with the new online sign up form. Emily not only volunteers at the Library, but she is also an avid reader and uses the Library as well. The Youth Librarians raved, "It is wonderful to have a teen volunteer with her maturity and experience. She definitely deserves this recognition!"

Lifetime Achievement Award - Mary Lib Saleh

The Lifetime Achievement Award is given to a person or persons in Euless that have given of their time and efforts to the City of Euless throughout their life. This year, the Lifetime Achievement Award has been presented to Mary Lib Saleh. There is no better cheerleader and supporter of the City of Euless than Mary Lib! She volunteered her time first as a City Council Member and then as Mayor for 21 years.

Mayor Saleh was a city servant from 1989-2014. She began as a City Council Member for four years and then was elected Mayor for 21 years. She served on both the Parks and Library Boards and is a proponent of public art and historical preservation. She was instrumental in the research and due diligence performed when the existing library was being built. She has always had a great passion for our library in particular and was one of the founding members of the Euless Library Foundation. The library has been named in her honor and will continue to provide joy to people of all ages for years to come.

Our congratulations go out to all of this year's winners. The dedication of a volunteer's time and energy cannot be compared and we appreciate their love and admiration for Euless. Thank you for all that you do to help make Euless great!

South Eules Park Splash Pad Opens for the Season

600 S. Main St.

May 1 - Sept. 30

Mon. - Sat., 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Sun., noon - 6 p.m.

South Eules Park Splash Pad is free, family-friendly fun. No matter how hot it is outside, the Splash Pad provides an entertaining way for people of all ages to keep cool. These amenities are great for younger children because they do not present the same drowning hazard as swimming pools. A magic touch bollard turns on the fun. Interactive spray elements are timed so water only runs when the sprayground is in use. There are several water effects for all children to play in including a raining bucket, an in-ground spray fountain, poles, a colorful misty arch, geysers and a spray column all located on a blue rubber surface. The tropical landscaping includes banana trees and hardy hibiscus. Two benches and a beach hut shade structure provide a variety of places for parents to stay dry and supervise while children play. Restrooms and the drinking fountain are located next to the sprayground. Admission is free.
